

Manage your firm, your way—with Clio

Clio's modern and easy to use practice management software for lawyers is now available in Australia. Enjoy the flexibility of working your way on Mac, PC, and mobile. No risk, no long-term commitments, cancel anytime.

Clio Manage

The legal practice management software for running your firm, organising matters, and collaborating with clients—all in one place. Clio Manage helps you do more billable work, take the guesswork out of business decisions, and deliver the service your clients want.

Clio Grow

The client intake and legal client relationship management (CRM) software that transforms the way you engage with potential and existing clients. Clio Grow lets you make the client intake process more efficient—and personal—while automating tasks and streamlining contact management.

Clio Complete

The legal industry's modern and flexible software solution for law firms. Clio Manage and Clio Grow combine to form Clio Complete, which has everything you need to run your firm—from intake to invoice.

MORE THAN JUST SOFTWARE

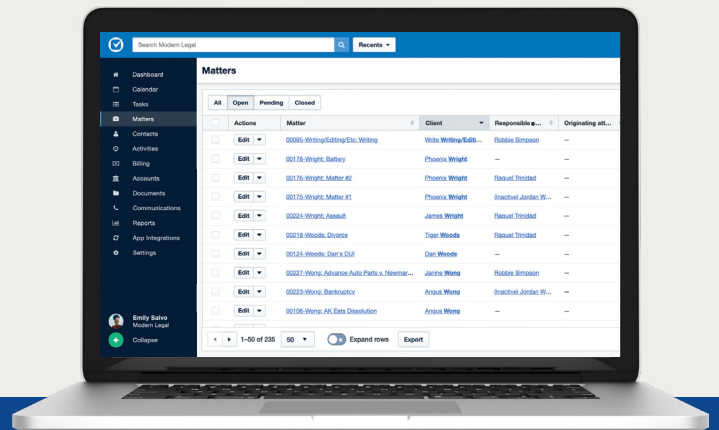

Clio provides best-in-class security, 24/5 customer support, integrates with your favorite apps and tools and is trusted by over 150,000 legal professionals worldwide.

Compared to other softwares, Clio was fresh, simple, and got the work done. It was also cost-effective and had all of the features we needed—billing, task management, communications, and it linked with other apps.
